Volunteers provide passion, expertise and labor. Volunteerism generates a bond of understanding and support for parks, creating citizen stewards of the Commonwealth's natural, historic, recreational, scenic and cultural resources.

Benefits

Your duties as a state park volunteer are an excellent way to gain work experience and improve job skills. Volunteer hours also count as job experience when applying for employment with Virginia State Parks or for any Virginia State government position.

In appreciation of your volunteer hours at the park, Virginia State Parks presents benefits to volunteers as a "Thank You" for your time and talent.

Virginia State Parks Individual Volunteer Benefits
